

Saxophone Music of Steve Cohen

“This work [Sonata for Soprano Saxophone and Piano] uses the soprano saxophone as an expressive and energetic instrument of classical music in the outer movements. However, the sub-tone, glissandi, and “blue notes” that define the “Blues” make it as soulful a movement as you will hear outside of the Village Vanguard.”

-- Anthony Balester,
Outstanding Contemporary Saxophone Recordings and Works
(<http://www.ithaca.edu/faculty/mauk/Saxproject.htm>)

Available directly from Steve Cohen:

Sonata for Soprano Saxophone and Piano (2002)

Sonata for Tenor Saxophone and Piano (2009)

“Riverwalk” for SATB Saxophone Quartet (2006)

Verdi’s “Nabucco” Overture, transcribed for Saxophone Choir

Web: www.SteveCohenMusic.net

Email: Steve@SteveCohenMusic.net